

Current

Updated 7/1

UW Libraries is focused on preparing spaces for re-opening based on State and UW guidance, ramping up hiring and implementing a gradual transition of Libraries employees back to on-site work in accordance with UW telework policies.

AVAILABLE

- ✓ Individual Study Space @ Research Commons by reservation.*
- ✓ Librarian support and services online: consults, class instruction, events, 24/7 chat
- ✓ No-contact pick-up (maps, gov. docs included)
- ✓ Select book returns open
- ✓ Interlibrary Loan and Summit (physical and electronic materials)

NOT AVAILABLE

- Access to Odegaard, Suzzallo, UW Bothell and UW Tacoma Libraries, and branch libraries (all Libraries spaces closed EXCEPT Individual Study Space @ Research Commons).
- Access to Special Collections, microforms, newspapers

TIMELINE FOR REOPENING

➤ Why can't UW Libraries open sooner? See the Libraries' COVID update web page to learn more.

➤ Plans are subject to change pending unit readiness (staffing, ability to implement any new guidance from State/UW, etc.)

➤ See websites for UW Bothell and UW Tacoma Libraries for site-specific information, including for course reserves.

➤ Status of services is always current on the Libraries' COVID update web page.

PLANNING FOR

SERVICES/SPACES	OPENING DATES
Health Sciences Library	Monday, September 13
Odegaard Undergraduate Library*	Monday, September 20
Suzzallo and Allen Libraries	Wednesday, September 22

*Current valid Husky Card required for entry.

 Some branch libraries and Special Collections may be operating on a limited basis, hours, locations TBD.

FUTURE

When Libraries open in September

- Return to in-person services inside Libraries including browsing and check-out
- Access to Special Collections, microforms, newspapers
- Group study spaces
- In-Libraries events and exhibits
- Public access (non-UW affiliates) to select Libraries (TBD)